MISSING CHILDREN POLICY

Per Ohio State Law Senate Bill 321; The Missing Children Act; all students will be required to attend school daily per regular school hours from 9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. Additionally, if a student is tardy, leaving early or is not able to attend school, the parent and/or legal guardian must contact the school office per specific guidelines. LEA's have an obligation to notify the missing children clearinghouse i.e. organization providing resources for missing children, their families and the professional who serve them and local law enforcement, as applicable and/or establish a fingerprinting program.

MISSING CHILDREN PROTOCOL

Reporting Absences/Late Arrivals/Early Departures
